Education is a basic human right and fosters economic growth and human development. Providing right type of education to the right people at right time is the key to human resource formatin. . Education enables a person to achieve a better job or means of self-employment. It cultivates cultural values and beliefs in the child.

Every year, a large number of students dropout of school worldwide and this hinders their economic and social well-being as well as reduces the literacy rate of the country and creates a non-innovative environment.

School dropout is defined as the act of a student leaving school before completing the required level of education. It is a serious problem that can have a negative impact on the individual, the community, and the economy.

There are many factors that can contribute to school dropout, including:

Personal factors: These include the student's motivation, academic ability, and family support.

School factors: These include the quality of the education, the school environment, and the school's resources.

Community factors: These include poverty, crime, and discrimination.

The consequences of school dropout can be far-reaching, dropout are more likely to be unemployed, earn lower wages, and live in poverty. They are also more likely to be involved in crime and to have health problems.

There are a number of things that can be done to address the problem of school dropout, including:

Early intervention: Identifying students who are at risk of dropping out and providing them with support.

Improving the quality of education: Making sure that all students have access to a high-quality education that is relevant to their needs.

Creating a supportive school environment: Making sure that schools are safe and welcoming places for all students.

By addressing the root causes of school dropout, we can help to ensure that all students have the opportunity to reach their full potential.

The school dropout is indeed a matter of grave concern and to reduce this all,we should work towards transitioning children back to school but also focus on putting strong remedial learning initiatives in place to ensure retention and continuity of learning.
