

+ first question ( 05 points ) : answer (true) or ( false):

1. School Psychology, a general practice of Health Service Psychology, is concerned with children, youth, families, and the schooling process.
2. School psychologists synthesize information on developmental mechanisms and contexts.
3. The extent to which adult criteria should be applied to children should be decided on the basis of good empirical data about the phenomenology and continuity of disorders.
4. The restrictive specification of particular behaviours to fit them into a diagnostic category is often inappropriate, as a child is continually changing and growing.
5. School psychologists Conceptualize children's development and translate scientific findings to alleviate cognitive, behavioral, social and emotional problems

+ second question (05points) : Answer the sentences using the following terms: ( skill - service ):

1. Organizations and agencies, teachers, and other adults to enhance healthy relationships and environments that promote learning and development.
2. Prevention and intervention programs to promote developmental, educational, and psychological well-being.
3. Families who request services and assistance with academic and behavioral problems at home and at school
4. Consultation with teachers, parents, administrators, and other health service providers.
5. Individuals from birth to young adulthood presenting learning or behavior problems, mental disorders evident in infancy, childhood, or adolescence.

Name :

Surname :

Good luck

Point :