
 first question (10 points) : answer (true) or (false):

1. Human Resource Management is a process, which consists of four main activities, namely, acquisition, development, motivation, as well as maintenance of human resources.
2. Adam Smith is one of the leading researchers in human resources management.
3. There are 10 core posts adopted by the Department of Human Resources Management.
4. Organizational justice policy and equality of individuals within the organization are one of the organization's most fundamental principles for enhancing the motivation of achievement.
5. Among the leading theories in the management of human resources management is the theory of intrusion and exploitation.

 second question (10points) : Answer the sentences using the following terms: (Principle - Objective - Dimension):

1. Empowering human resource within organization
2. Practice professional ethics within the organization
3. Investing human resources to challenge global competition
4. Achieve a good safe and healthy working environment to avoid professional and psychological hazards
5. Fostering a balance between opportunities and human potential

Good luck

Name :

Surname :

Point :