

Introduction to Legal Terminology Course

Welcome to the second semester of our Legal Terminology course, explicitly designed for second-year law degree students. This course builds upon the foundational concepts introduced in the first semester and delves deeper into the specialized language and principles governing various law branches.

Course Objectives

As we embark on this journey, our primary objectives are to:

- Enhance Legal Vocabulary: Expand your understanding of legal terminology across multiple areas, including international law, commercial law, and human rights...
- Application of Terms: This course will equip you with the skills to apply legal terminology appropriately in both written and oral contexts, ensuring clarity and precision in legal communication.
- Critical Analysis: Examine legal texts, cases, and statutes to cultivate essential thinking and highlight the significance of language in shaping legal arguments and interpretations.
- Practical Relevance: Relate theory to practice by analyzing real-life legal scenarios, allowing you to recognize the significance of terminology in the legal field profession.

Course Structure

This semester will consist of 13 lessons, each focusing on specific legal areas such as:

- Family Law in Algeria
- Criminal Law in Algeria
- Contract Law in Algeria
- Human Rights in Algeria
- Labor Law in Algeria
- Environmental Law in Algeria

- Intellectual Property Law in Algeria
- Administrative Law in Algeria
- International Law in Algeria
