

Tutorial 3. Bibliographic research

I. Choose the correct (s) response (s) ?

1. The bibliography is:

- a) a work plan
- b) an internship report
- c) a list of written documents

2. Among the different types of documentary sources, we have:

- a) papers
- b) Dictionary
- e) E-mail

3. A database is characterized by:

- a) The ability to manage very large volumes of information.
- b) Exhaustiveness.
- c) Uniqueness.

4. Among the reasons for citing references within the text are:

- a) For intellectual honesty.
- b) To allow readers to find your sources.
- c) To avoid plagiarism.

5. Concerning the citation of multiple references:

- a) The authors are listed in chronological order.
- b) The authors are listed in alphabetical order.
- c) It is forbidden to use more than two authors.

6. The elements to include in a bibliographic reference in a paper are:

- a) URL (Uniform Resource Locator).
- b) The names of the authors.
- c) The date of consultation.

7. The list of bibliographic references is placed:

- a) Before the conclusion.
- b) After the discussion.
- c) After the conclusion.

II. Short and open-ended questions ?

1. Classify the steps of an effective bibliographic search ?

Extract the information
Search for sources
Format the information
Select the documents

2. What is the relationship between a bibliographic reference and a bibliographic citation?

3. Define the following words:

- a. ISSN
- b. Librarians
- c. WWWHW Method
- d. Boolean Operators (AND, OR, NOT)

